Today is August and the 1st day of summer vacation. Your name is Kazuma and you are a university student in Osaka. Your plan of summer vacation is nothing. When you go to convenience store, you meet your classmates, Hiroki, Yuki and Miho. Hiroki is a son of president of Avex Company so he is very rich and kind person. Yuki is easygoing and she belongs to the cheer leader club. Miho is active and friendly. "Hello. How will you spend summer vacation?" you say.

"I have no plan at all." Everyone says in their voice.

"Shall we travel to Hawaii? The sky is only blue, the air is fresh and the sea is clear. It must be so nice!" you suggest.

"That is very good plan! Let's travel to Hawaii!" Everyone agrees with you.

"I want to climb Mt Diamond Head!" Hiroki says.

"I want to go shopping at Shopping Center!" Yuki says.

"I want to play beach volleyball at Waikiki Beach!" Miho says.

"I want to swim in very clear sea!" you say. Let me see...How do we go to Hawaii?"

"We will make our own raft and we will go to Hawaii by it." Miho says.

On the other hand, "My father has his private helicopter so we go to Hawaii by it." Hiroki says.

If you choose your own raft, TURN TO PAGE 15.

We decide to go on the straight way to Hawaii because it's the fastest way.

The sky above the sea which we will go looks like rain, but we want to arrive there as soon as possible so that we can enjoy our vacation. The beginning of the voyage, we have no trouble, and enjoy the journey we rarely experience. About five or six hours later, it starts raining, and the waves began to run high. Our raft is rocking about on the wave. We feel so scared, and what is worse, Miho finds something is coming to us, "Look everyone! I think we should dive into the sea right now!!"

"What's happens? We should stay and wait until the sea calms down."

"No no..no... Look!! I think they are not good to us." we stare at the way Miho is looking, and I find a group of sharks!!

"Oh my god.... I understand, Miho."

"What Kazuma?" Yuki and Hiroki say.

"We seem to be aimed by sharks, so we should stay here and keep silence until sharks go away."

Miho says, "I think that it's not good for us. They will attack at our raft and we'll."

We are in panic now, but we don't have enough time to think what we should do next.

If you choose to stay on the raft, TURN TO PAGE 3
If you choose to dive into the sea, TURN TO PAGE 10

I think that waiting until the sharks go away from around us is better, so you stay on your raft with no talking. The sharks come to your raft, and swim round and round. Suddenly, one of the sharks attack the raft, and it is breaking! At that very moment Yuki screams out like crazy because her tension reaches up limits of her fear, and she dives in the sea, and swims for her life.

“Please help me, my great God! Please...please.” She starts to cry. You dive too and tries to help Yuki, but Yuki doesn’t stop to swim, so she approaches the sharks of her own motion.

“Yuki! Come back! Where do you want to go?!” You say, but she doesn’t hear and keep going, and you miss her.

You hear the voices of Miho and Hiroki, “Kazuma! Come back! The sharks are coming to you!”

“I can’t do that! I have to help Yuki!”

“We know...but we can’t see her any more!”

You can’t abandon her because you love her very much although you never tell her it, and actually you intended to confess love to her in Hawaii.

“Kazuma! You are in danger!”

Your mind went blank as soon as you find Yuki.

In black, you feel hearing the voice of Yuki. “Thank you Kazuma. I love you too.”

"We can go to Hawaii very faster than by raft, so let's go to Hawaii by helicopter," Miho says, and you agree with her.

"OK, then we must prepare to travel, so first we go home and prepare, and then we assemble at the same place one hour later, OK?"

"OK, see you later." You go home soon and pack a wallet, clothes, swimwear, snacks and toothbrush in you bag.

"It's perfect!" You go to the rendezvous ten minutes early. So your friends haven't come yet. Soon your friends come to the rendezvous. When you look at Miho and Yuki's bags, you are surprised. "Why is your baggage so much!? I only have this!"

"Only that?! I can't believe it! We are girls so that's the way it goes. Hiroki, can your private helicopter hold our baggage?" Yuki asks.

When you arrive at Hiroki's house, you are surprised at it also. It is as if the palace is French. "I want to live in a nice and gorgeous house like this in the future. Will you marry me? Hiroki." Miho says for a laugh.

"If you become a nice woman, I will think about that, and I want to introduce my father to you. Come here please, Dad." Hiroki says.

"Hello. I hear that you will travel to Hawaii with Hiroki. I have a license of pilot, so I can operate the helicopter," Hiroki's father says.

“Please wait! I would like to operate the helicopter. When I was child, I used to play with a toy helicopter, so I can operate the real one.” Hiroki says.

If you change pilot Hiroki, TURN TO PAGE 6.
If you choose Hiroki’s father, TURN TO PAGE 12.

You decide not to follow the signboard and began to look for your friends around the sea. You have gone about for an hour, but you can't find them. When you try to give up, you find a cave. You are very curious, so you are fascinated by it and enter it. Inside of it is very dark, so you take your celler phone out of your pocket and turn on the light. Then you advance toward the back. You feel fear because it is dark, cold, and quiet. You also have the strange feeling that you are being followed by someone.

When you walk for a while, the way is divided into two. After considering which way you should go, you decide to go to the right side. You walk about for fifty meters, and there is a dead end. You get angry and turn back.

After that, you go to the left side. You walk about for fifty meters, and you find something. It is a pile of treasure! You are very excited.

"Don't move!" someone says.

You look back, and two pirates are standing there. You turn pale. It was true that you were being followed by someone at that time.

"We can't let you run away because you found this treasure." One of them says and hits your stomach.

You lose your sense. Nobody knows what happen to you after that.

You gather in Hiroki's house. There is his really gorgeous private helicopter in his huge garden. There are large and comfortable seats in the helicopter.

The helicopter is going smoothly. You enjoy a really beautiful view from the window. However, suddenly, in front of us you see a large, dark cloud. It's a huge storm. There is only the choice that you go through it. When you enter the storm, the helicopter shakes intensely. Hiroki says, "I can't cope with this situation well! I don't know what should I do?"

Yuki says, "Calm down, Hiroki. We trust you. You said you're a really good pilot and you can manage any situations."

"Yeah, but actually this is a first flight for me. I just wanted to be taken cool."

He gets into a panic and begins to cry.

You say, "We should find a way to get out of this situation somehow!" We look for something to jump from the helicopter; however, there are no escape chutes in it. Then fortunately, we find how to get in touch with Hiroki's father by radio.

Yuki says, "But this helicopter probably can't endure to wait for his rescue. I think there is only the choice that we dive from a hatch."

Miho says, "What!? It's too dangerous! We should stay here and wait for his rescue." Everyone stares at you. Which is the best way?

If you choose to stay in the helicopter and wait for his help, TURN TO PAGE 8.
If you want to dive from a hatch to the sea, TURN TO PAGE 11.

You can arrive in Hawaii safely because you go round to avoid a storm. It takes many days to arrive in Hawaii, but you can have a good time on the raft with talking about a plan in Hawaii and eating. You row the raft in turn. You think that Hawaii is an ideal country for you when you arrive there.

“Wonderful!” You say.

After you put your baggage in your hotel, you play beach volleyball. Hiroki is good at volleyball so he teaches how to play volleyball to Miho, Yuki and you. After that, you are divided into two groups, two people in each and play a game. Hiroki and Miho versus you and Yuki. First, they think strategies in each group and they decide punishment of losing team. It is that losing team buys winning team dinner. They are enthusiastic about winning.

You say. “My team will win!!!” but consequently Hiroki’s team wins so your team has to buy Hiroki’s team dinner.

Miho says. “I want to eat a hamburger!” so you go to the hamburger shop. During dinner you talk about next day’s plan. You plan to go shopping.

After you go back to the hotel, you feel sleepy. You decide to sleep. You want to sleep hearing a sound of sea but it is a very hot day, today so you worry about which places you should select by the sea or in the cool room.

If you choose by the sea, TURN TO PAGE 13.
If you choose in the cool room, TURN TO PAGE 9.

You get in touch with Hiroki's father by the radio. "May-day. Our helicopter is caught in storm and we need your help, but I don't know the coordinates."

He says, "I got it. Please you endure in the helicopter by the time I manage to face the rescue. ...going.. soon!"

That time just, however, this helicopter shakes violently and it is not possible to endure to the storm, and suddenly it dives toward the ground. The voice and the cry that someone calls out are heard while you are holding on to something.

Suddenly, something violently strikes you on your head and you faint.

You are in bed in the hospital when you wake up. You feel a horrible headache. You think that you damaged only your head and you can survive at the accident. In your surroundings, however, your family is screaming. Hiroki, Yuki, and Miho are also crying next to them. Why are they crying, though everyone survive miraculously? Suddenly the body becomes light. Then, it is understood that your body is floating. No, it isn't. Only your soul is floating and you see yourself who are sleeping in a dark room! You realize that it is only you that died of that accident and your soul remains still wandering somewhere.

You think that you should sleep in the cool room because you think you can't sleep for the hot day if you choose by the sea. You want to sleep comfortably.

You stay in a room with Hiroki so you say to Hiroki

"I'm going to sleep from now, Hiroki."

"No!! Let's talk with me. I have a story which I want you to hear." Hiroki says.

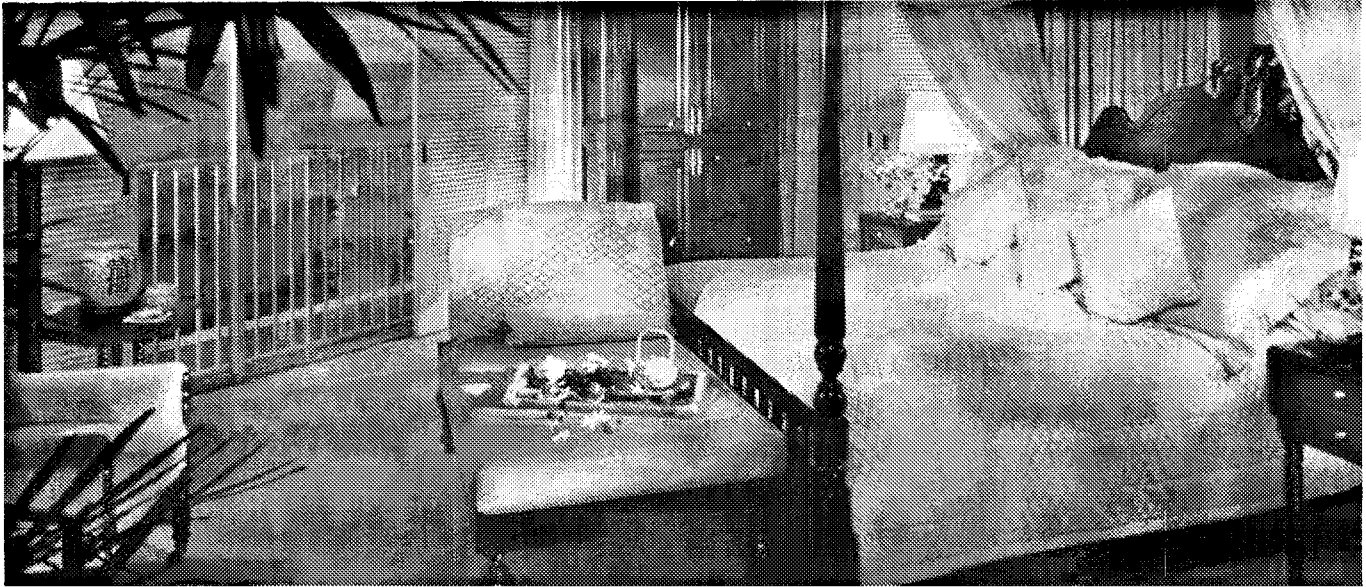

"Really?? But I'm very sleepy so I can't hear it properly. I think that I should hear it after I take a nap." You say.

"Ok. I agree with you. You look tired now, so you should sleep. Good night!!" Hiroki says.

"Good night!" You say.

You don't think that these conversations are the last conversations with Hiroki. After that, you go to bed and fall the sleep soon. During sleeping you watch a dream. In the dream, you are dating with Yuki. You and Yuki have a good time watching a movie, going shopping and having a dinner. You are very happy. On the way to the backing home, when you and Yuki walking on the street, Yuki has a car accident. At the same time, you wake up with shouting "Yuki!" You are relieved because you realize it is a dream.

"Dream..." You say. At the same time, you feel something is wrong. You realize that your hands have many lines. You are surprised and you look your face in the mirror. Your face age a lot. In fact, many years past!

You think that diving into the sea, and escaping from the sharks is better, so all of you decide to dive in. Miho says, "It's good to dine into the deep sea, but we can't breathe in there not so long. How should we do after diving?" That's a true, you have to think about that.

"All right, I'll go over the sea, and come back again. Wait for a while!"

You dive into the sea, and survey around you. Then, you find something is gleaming behind you. You come up it cautiously, and realize it is a sunken ship.

You think that all of you may be able to hide in it until the sharks go away.

"Hey! I find a sunken ship in the sea, so we can hide in it. Come on!"

All of you dive into the sea, and you lead them to the sunken ship. You reach at there, and in tern, all of you enter inside of it.

You find the place where you can breathe, it seemed to have been ever used as a room of the crew.

"I think that we are reliable if I hide in here for the time being." Miho says.

Then, Hiroki screams out "Oh, my gods!" All of you look behind you, and you find the large flock of sharks! You realize that you come ironically to a nest of sharks. You lost your minds...

"I'm sorry my friends... I have made a wrong decision."

You open the hatch. You decide to dive first, next Yuki, Miho and lastly Hiroki dive by turns. It rains violently and the site what you can see from the hatch is only dark cloud. Your heart fills with horror. Your friends are also clouded with fear. You say, "We can definitely survive. Be careful!"

"You too. Good luck!" Yuki's eyes are watery.

You calm your nerves and breathe deeply. You jump! You feel cold and can't see anything because of the rain. Then you pass out and what you see last is turbulent waves.

Suddenly, you feel warm and comfortable. You slowly regain your consciousness and get that you're in the sea and riding on a turtle! You can breathe in the sea!! Then you get to a castle and there are a lot of princesses. The turtle stops in front of them and says, "Please get down here."

When you get down, they give a bow to you. One of them who must be the queen approaches you and says, "Welcome to our Ryugu-castle. You're chosen and permitted to stay here forever. We will prepare anything what you want. If you need anything, we are at your service."

You can't believe anything. Is this a just dream? Are you "Urashima-Taro"!?
"Thank you very much for your invite. But I must look for my friends. "

Go to the next page.

“We can help you and look for them so please take your time and enjoy our world.” She guides you to the banquet hall, and holds the feast. You really enjoy living here, however, the friends are not yet found. Where on earth might they have gone?

-END-

Hiroki's father doesn't allow Hiroki to operate a helicopter, so his father decides to operate by himself. In the morning of the departure, you assemble at Hiroki's house. His house is very big and there is a heliport on the roof. You go up there and get in the helicopter. Flying by helicopter is exciting for you because you have never experienced. The view from its window is beautiful. You talk about many things with enjoying the view.

After ten hours flight, you arrive at Hawaii. As soon as you and your friends get off the helicopter, you run toward the beach. The sea spreads everywhere and the seawater is very clean, so your tension becomes higher. You play beach volleyball. Hiroki belongs to the volleyball club, so he can play it well. Minutes later, you are tired of playing it.

"I'm going to go to swim," you say.

"OK. We will continue playing volleyball," Miho says.

You like swimming very much, so you lose track of time. You are exhausted and go back the place where your friends are. However, they are not there. When you try to look for them, you find a handmade signboard which an arrow is written on. It seems to mean, "Go right." You wonder what it is, and consider whether you follow it or not.

If you follow the signboard and go right, TURN TO PAGE 14.
If you don't follow it, TURN TO PAGE 5.

You think that you should sleep by the sea because you can rarely have a chance to sleep hearing the sound of Hawaii's sea. When you go to the beach, there are some people. They are talking, sleeping and taking for a walk. You look for a best place to sleep. You can find it and there is a couple. They seem to you to be spending their honeymoon in Hawaii. They look like very happy.

You ask them. "Are you happy?"

They reply. "Of course!"

At that time, you think that you want to spend your honeymoon in Hawaii, too! You imagine walking at this beach with Yuki in the future at their honeymoon. In fact, you love her! You sleep there with feeling Hawaii and happiness.

When you wake up, you realize the difference of view. You don't know what happened and you are confused. You just think that about that where you are in for a long time. At that time, you realize that your clothes are wet. You think that you may draft.

"Oh my god! Please help me someone!" you say unconsciously, but nobody reply. In fact, you drift and reach a different beach!! You remember that you sleep with your cell phone in your pocket. Soon, you take it out of your pocket but it doesn't work because it is wet and broken.

"Shit!" you say. "What should I do??" Then, you remember Yuki's smile unconsciously. "I should have told Yuki my heart!" you say.

You decide to follow the signboard and go right. There is a path, you advance along it. When you walk at the end of it, you also find a signboard. A left arrow is written on it, so you turn left and go. When you walk about fifty meters, a signboard is hanging from a tree. It says, "Pull me." You pull it, and an envelope falls down. You open it, and a piece of paper and a key are enclosed. The paper says, "Don't lose this key. Go straight." You go straight with the key. When you walk for a while, you find a lodge. There is a signboard at the side of the door, it says, "Enter." However, the door is locked. Then you remember the key. You can insert it in the lock and open the door. When you enter the lodge, the light turns on suddenly.

"Happy birthday!" Someone shouts with the sound of some fire crackers.

There are Yuki, Miho, and Hiroki. A birthday cake and many dishes are on the table. Today is your birthday! Your friends have planned your birthday party without letting you know it. You were forgetting your own birthday completely because you had enjoyed your vacation.

"Thank you. I'm very happy. I have never experienced a more wonderful birthday than this one," you say.

Then your friends give you some presents, so you are over the moon. You have a good time talking and eating the cake. You will never forget this day.

-END-

"If we travel by the raft, we shall never forget this travel," Yuki says, so you decide to make the raft.

"OK, then let's go to the forest and collect a lot of woods," you say.

After you collect the woods, you go to the seaside and make up the Finally, you set up the flag that is written your names; Kazuma, Hiroki, Yuki and Miho. "It's perfect! We will be able to arrive at Hawaii!" Miho says.

"I'm very tired. I would like to depart tomorrow," You say.

"OK, then we shall depart from here tomorrow," Hiroki says.

Next morning, you assemble the river side. "Let's start for Hawaii!" you yell with delight. Your raft is favorable at first, however you discover a lot of black suspect clouds.

"Look! Probably it will be stormed. We should change the route," Hiroki says.

"But if we change the route, the arrival will be so late. I want to go to Hawaii as fast as possible, so let's go to the same route," Yuki says.

"How selfish can you get? To go to Hawaii the same route is too dangerous! We must change the safe route," you say.

You must make a fatal decision.

If you change the safe route, TURN TO PAGE 2.
If you go to the same route, TURN TO PAGE 7.
