

H.W.G.P

This story is too dangerous for you. If you mistake a choice, you would get a bad ending. Please be careful.

One day, a certain guy moves to dangerous city, Hirakata. Your name is Scott. You were a boss of gangs in the town where you lived before. You had done ill deeds except murder there. You thought you had nothing to do there, so you decided to master the other city. You worried about where to move.

"You should go to Hirakata because it is the most dangerous city in Japan, and there are so many gangs who are always fighting in Hirakata," your friend Armstorong said. You decided to master there.

"Please don't move anywhere. Stay by me," your girlfriend Jessica said, but you ignored her and moved.

On the first day that you arrive at Hirakata, you are involved by a gang. You fight against him and you win. You ask him who is the strongest in this city.

"The boss of Black color gang team or Red one who antagonizes and are fighting for Hirakata West Gate Park. They are the strongest," he answers.

You go there. Then you see one of Red color team quarreling with one of Black one. Suddenly Black takes out knife from his bosom and tries to stick Red. You think if you help either Red or Black, you can belong to a team you that help.

If you help Red, go to page2.

If you help Black, turn to page3.

You decide to help Red. Black has a knife so you can't approach them easily. Then you find a bar which is thrown away. You pick up it and catch Black flatfooted.

"Who are you? Do you know what you did? I am a member of Black gang team," Black says.

You say, "What does it matter? I am Scott who can conquer Hirakata. Remember me." And Black runs away for fear of your eyes.

"Thank you for your help. We want a strong man as you. How about belonging to Red team? We will welcome," Red says.

"I'll be pleased to do," you answer. You meet a boss of Red team. His code name is Redstar. Nobody knows his real name. He is very kind so this team is very good.

"We must stop Black destroys Hirakata, so you fight with them," Redstar says. You think so too. Nobody except you can stop Black. You go fighting with them in their safe house. You attack them.

They are stronger than you. You are defeated again. Then one of you sticks one of Black in the chest with a knife. Black team leaves him and goes somewhere. He dies. You do a grievous mistake. You should hide it for standing of our team or honestly make a full statement to the police about it.

If you hide it for our future, turn to page4.
If you honestly talk about it with the police, turn to page5.

Red finds a bar which is thrown away, and tries to catch Black flatfooted. You see the sight and decide to help Black. You attack Red and stop him from hitting with a bar. Red is frightened at you and runs away.

"Thank you for your helping. You are very strong so I like you. How about belonging to our team if you don't belong to any teams?" Black says.

"I'll be pleased to do," you answer. You meet a boss of Black team. His code name is Blackstone. He is so dreadful. His team is too. They commit a crime to get some money.

"I am the strongest in this city, but disturbance exists. It is Red. We must destroy it. Cooperate with us," Blackstone says.

You can't answer because you reluctant to destroy Red. You don't know which Black team is right or not.

"We are planning to rob a gun shop of some gun or kidnap child who is rich to get some money. Cooperate with either robbery or kidnap. You will be killed by us if you refuse my proposal," Blackstone says.

"Ok, but give me some time to think. It is important for me to choose them," you say. You are confused about this problem. If you mistake your choice, you will go bad ending. You should join a group which robs a gun shop of some gun or kidnaps child who is rich.

If you join a group which rob some gun, turn to page 6.
If you join a group which kidnaps, turn to page7.

You are chased by the police. When escaping from the police, you fight with them. It is difficult for you to attack them while escaping, but you manage. You have to find out the place where they have a meeting as a detective, but you should not be found by the police and the Black team. Sometimes you get some information, but all of it is just false. You get some information rarely, but it is too late because the information that you got is the place where they had the meeting before. You still go on searching for them and you never give up.

One day you get two pieces of information. The Black team is planning to attack your lover and best friend. You have become a main character of the Red team now, so they may attack your lover and best friend instead of hurting you. Because Jessica is an important person to you, you really want to guard her. You promised to marry her a few years ago. Of course you love her, but she lives in Neyagawa city. Or they may attack your best friend, Armstrong. You also really want to help him. You have fought many enemies with him since you were a child. There were many times that he helped you. Of course he believes you that you'll come there to help him, but he lives in Kadoma city. If you go to either city to help, you are able to help only her or him. Now you have to choose to go which town. Choose carefully. If you make a mistake in choosing, you'll have a bad ending.

If you want to guard her, turn to page 8.

If you want to help her, turn to page 9.

You decide to confess and tell honestly the whole story of how it happened. You say to the boss of Red to do so. He agrees with you and says it to the police. They are preparing for arresting while the police are talking about something with each other. You can't hear what they are talking about because their voices are low. Their faces are very serious.

After a while, one of them turns to you and says a surprising thing. They want to pull the strings.

"If you cooperate with us to attack Black, we will not arrest you," they say. Since Black commit crimes habitually, they make an enemy of the citizens and the police. The citizens are often troubled by them and have accused them many times. The police are filled every minute by Black and they always want to arrest Black by any means. You know all this situation, but what should you do?

"It's not fair," one of the members say. You think so too, but you want to make Hirakata a peaceful city. If you can stop Black, everyone is very happy with no murder and no injury. The most important thing is that Black's members repent and get happy life. They should know the value of living with other people.

"I don't want to do that," the other man says. Now, there is no time left to decide what to do. They are running away at this time.

If you cooperate with the police, turn to page 12.
If you don't, turn to page 13.

You decide to rob guns with other members. At midnight you walk around the town to find uninhabited shops which you steal guns.

One day a member runs in your home, and he is in a hurry. Other members ask him, "What's wrong with you? You are unusual. What's happened?"

He begins to say in a low voice, "In fact I heard the surprising news that one of us was arrested yesterday."

At the same time he finishes to say, other members begin to make a lot of noise. They say, "Who? Who was arrested?" and look around.

Someone shouts, "A right hand isn't here!! Perhaps...it's the right hand!?"

Others say, "You shouldn't say such a stupid thing. He is clever, so he can't mess. We can't imagine it."

The leader says, "Just be quiet!! Ok, I'll tell you the truth. You can keep a secret, can't you?" As he starts to speak, everyone fell silent. "Maybe you can't imagine, but the right hand was arrested. When he negotiated about guns and bought them, the police burst into the room. They had been staking him out since he went out his house. At first I also couldn't believe, but now we have to accept the truth. I do want to revenge on the police. I'm planning to attack them. Can you join me?"

If you attack the police with the boss; turn to page 14.
if you don't attack them; turn to page 15.

You have impulse to run to do something sinful. Then you decide to kidnap someone and then gain some ransom from their family.

One day, you find a boy walking down the street. He is walking alone and he looks so wealthy, so you think it is a big chance to gain a big amount of money!!! You kidnap him without any hesitation, and you take the boy to the place where all your team members meet each other.

You ask many questions to this boy; about his family, where he lives, and so on ... Then I find out that this boy was a prince from other foreign country!!! Some members is so excited that they think they can gain a big amount of money, but the others are so frightening, because they notice that the things which they are doing could not be a joke.

You have a right what I should do with this boy because it is you who kidnapped this boy. Then you suggest two types of plans to everyone. The one is to secure this prince for a while and elaborate a better plan, and the other is to just phone his family right now and threaten them for some ransom. You take a vote to decide which plan I should carry out. Everyone is going wild with excitement. They are all dreaming of after gaining some ransom!!!

If you choose a plan to secure this prince, go to page 10.
If you choose a plan to call his family, go to page 11.

When you reach the town where Jessica lives, the city looks like peaceful. A few days later Black come here. As reported they are planning to attack her.

She lives by herself. It's too dangerous, but you can be in time!! You can guard her, and you have a chance to attack them. Besides you haven't seen her since you left this city two years ago. You can see her!! Because for a long time you have been in touch with her just phone and letter, it makes you so happy.

After your reunion, she and you go to a pub, and you tell her about whole story. She is too surprised to speak for a while. Then you encourage and cheer her.

According to the rumor, they will attack her the next evening, so you prepare many guns and hide in front of her house. About two hours later they come here. A heavy gunfight starts. It is a hard one. There are many windows that are broken after that. A few members of your team are injured, but you defeat them and no one is killed!! The boss of the Black team, Blackstone and you have a meeting, and he promises with you that they won't attack your team and citizens.

Finally after you guard her, you go to Kadoma in order to help Armstrong. It is too late. His team was wiped out by the Black team. You are shocked so much, but you are comforted by her. The city becomes peaceful and you get married two years later.

The end

When you reach the town where Armstrong lives, the city looks dangerous. Regardless of the Black team attack, the city is a corrupt society. Armstrong is fighting with his enemy, so he doesn't have enough power to guard himself.

Your coming is more useful, and you have only chance to attack them. According to a rumor, they will attack him a couple of weeks later. Your members do legwork, but you can't know the real day that they will attack. You are obliged to wait for their attack, and you always have to concentrate on their movement. Your members including you become tired.

"Let's go!! Come on!! Let's go!! Right away!!!" someone shouts. The day is coming. Suddenly they attack you. Heavy gun fighting starts. You guard him hardly, but little by little your members are shot. Next Armstrong is shot by someone. He bears to scream and his face becomes pale.

"Escape!!!" you shout, but it is too late. There is no way to escape because all of you are surrounded by the Black team. You have no choice that you still go on fighting or give up. You must give up to them. On the other hand, Armstrong is still loosing his blood. Then he... he dies of a loss of blood. You have no hope.

Finally you are caught by the Black team. "I wonder if I had gone to Neyagawa city to help my lover," you say to yourself.

The end

You decide to secure this prince for a while and discuss for a better plan with everyone to gain some more ransom from his family.

Everyone gave many good opinions to each other, but finally you decide to phone his family and threaten his family for some ransom generally.

Everyone seems so exciting and when you take a receiver to phone his family, you hear the siren from outside!!! Then you noticed that all of us were surrounded by the police!!!

Go without saying, we were all arrested by the crime of kidnapping and we all realized how the Japanese police are so superior and genius...

After we are all released, the team Black broke up and Hirakata became one of the most peaceful cities in Japan. No one ever attempt to make a new gang team in Hirakata, because they were afraid of the genius police in this city. Then no one has news of where Scott is...

Few years later, there was news that Scott had been arrested again by the crime of kidnapping princess from the foreign country...

After he had been released for this incident, he was arrested again for another incident...He is such an evil man!!!

After he had been released again, he meets a beautiful woman called Jessica. He turns over a new life from now on...

The end

You decide to call his family right now. We are all excited to call his family.

We are all dreaming about what we shall do after gained some ransom from his family.

Then you notice that you haven't still decided the amount of the ransom to demand. You consider for a while and you decide to threaten them for 100,000,000yen!!! That's a big amount of money!!! Everyone is screaming and yelling. They are so fluttering of this amount.

When everyone is drunk with this ecstasy, you start to call his family and tell them to come over with their ransom. You were also fluttering like others, but also feeling stressed. When the phone linked, it linked to the pizza delivery service. You dialed the wrong number!!!

You try once more and succeed to call prince's family. First, you tell them that you have kidnapped their kid, and you demand them for some ransom if they want their kid back. Then you tell them to bring some ransom and leave it in the toilet in the Hirakata Park.

Few hours later, you go to the toilet to check if they had brought their ransom. In the toilet, there was a big bag full of money!!! So you released the kid immediately!!!

Then you enjoyed for the rest of your life with this ransom!!!

The end

You decide to cooperate with the police to search Black and attack them. The boss of the police, Mr.Dong, is going to look in every nook and cranny in Hirakata, but you don't think it is a good idea. You know about Black's character better than the police. You think Black must go to the next city. There is a back street which they often use. Already an hour passed since they escaped, so they are maybe in the next city now. There are no ways to catch up them except this street. You tell Mr.Dong about it and he decides to go the street. You bike and the police follow you by patrol cars.

In 20 minutes, you reach the destination. You begin to look for all over the town allotting it. One hour later, one of the police officers discovers Black on the road and he contacts the whole. All members gather in the place and you encircle Black. Black members know there is no escape, and they take out arms. However, their numbers of people and arms are obviously inferior to you. It is useless resistance though they fight desperately. The police carefully arrested them so that they should never do the crime.

You frequently visit the Black members in the prison after that day, and they are correcting gradually. Afterwards, the Hirakata crime rate decreased sharply, and it becomes peaceful.

The end

You think that you should cooperate with the police for peace in Hirakata. However, other members look like being not convincing. You ask them what they think.

"We should be arrested because we have been killed a Black member," one of them say.

"It is reluctant because hi is a very bad guy, we should survive cooperating with the police," another men says.

"For peace in this town, we should catch Black with the police, and after that, they arrest us," someone says from the back.

A man says, "We should not make sacrifices any more. Let's escape!"

You ask them, "What do you think everyone?" The majority of the members agree with the opinion of running away contrarily with your desire.

"Don't do that. It will go from bad to worth. It will be not for you," you say them. But the members look at the faces each other and suddenly begin to run. You run after them because you want to guard them. The police run after you, and you are enclosed by them soon.

Unfortunately, the crime becomes heavier because you run away, and the penalty is added. Because you lost credit by the matter, peace of Hirakata is disappeared.

The end

You decide to attack the police with the boss and other members. You plan carefully when and how you attack. The goal is that nobody is arrested and everyone can come back. The boss says the conclusion that you should attack the police tomorrow. Everyone thinks in their heart, "Tomorrow? It's too early."

The boss begins to explain the reason, "If we put off the attack, the police would smell out our plan from somewhere. If it happens, we can't completely succeed in our plan. We have no time to hesitate!! Disperse and prepare right away!!" Of course every member agrees with the boss.

Early next morning you leave your home and get in the car. Everyone imagines a success and lifts their spirits. You arrive near the police and prepare guns and hypnosis spray for attack. You arrive and divide each gate and break into the police office. However, many police officers shoot with the armaments. You are too surprised to attack. Every member runs to the car and rides hastily away.

You hear the police officer's shout, "You are Mr. Black Stones!! You are wanted!! Wait!!" You think you come to a head, so perhaps you will be arrested.

Three months later, many police officers break into your home suddenly, so everyone can't move at all. You resist, but the numbers of them are more than you imagined. You give up the escape, so your life is over. You spend your life in the prison for many years.

The end

You decide not to attack the police. Attacking the police is risky, so you choose safety. However, you are sorry about the right hand who is arrested. You think you don't have courage, and are egotistic in your heart. You fuss, because you want to forget the things.

You begin to commit a crime again, for example stealing guns from the shops and driving your cars recklessly. The police have the eyes on you, and of course you notice that. However, you continue to do the bad things at other cities.

One day you hear another team which attacked the police was arrested. You think your choice was right, and if you had decided to attack the police...you are not free now. You think life is dangerous, so you can live in heaven or hell depends on your choice. You thank God, and swear by God "I will not trouble others."

Since then you don't steal anything, and don't fight rashly if there is no reason. Most of you say "You change dramatically, so you look another person. Why did you change so much? What made you so?"

You answered with smiling "I swore by God. I was saved by him, so I have become a new man. However, I can't stop to get into mischief. Please allow me to do that."

You live freely with the members forever.
